English I
Kathryn Trinidad, Instructor

1. 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens by Sean Covey
2. Dove by Robin L. Graham or Grayson by Lynne Cox

Students do not have to write a reaction for either book but taking notes to recall information is suggested.

Sophomore Summer Reading Assignment
English II
Carolyn Kaiser, Instructor

Read two selections from the following list:

- The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian by Sherman Alexie
- Oliver Twist by Charles Dickens
- Lord of the Flies by William Golding
- Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen
- Into Thin Air by John Krakauer

Sophomores are to write a one-page reaction to each book to be submitted on the first day of school in September. Provide evidence from the books to support your reaction. These should be typed documents. The summer reading assignment will count as your first two quiz grades for marking period one.

Junior Summer Reading Assignment
English III
Kathryn Trinidad and Carol Johns, Instructors

1. Bodega Dreams by Ernesto Quinones or A Farewell to Arms by Ernest Hemingway
(Please Note: Bodega Dreams contains harsh language that is necessary to make the novel authentic. If this language is offensive to you please select the alternative novel A Farewell to Arms.)
2. In the Heart of the Sea by Nathaniel Philbrick or The Big Thirst: The Secret Life and Turbulent Future of Water by Charles Fishman

Students are to write a one-page reaction to each book to be submitted on the first day of school in September. Provide evidence with citations from the books to support your reaction. These should be typed documents. The summer reading assignment will count as your first two quiz grades for marking period one.

Summer reading assignment is due the first day of school in September 2018.

Senior Summer Reading Assignment
Class of 2019

English IV

Carol Johns, Carolyn Kaiser, Instructors

Seniors will read two selections. One selection will be a work of fiction or nonfiction that is chosen from a reputable list, such as the New York Times best-seller list or Goodreads. Selection should be based on student preference or interest.

Students may choose the next reading selection from the following list. This list is an excerpt from the Modern Library's selections from the top 100 novels of the century.

- 1984 by George Orwell
- Their Eyes Were Watching God by Zora Neal Hurston
- Age of Innocence by Edith Wharton
- Brideshead Revisited by Evelyn Waugh
- Candide by Voltaire
- A Clockwork Orange by Anthony Burgess
- Steppenwolf by Hermann Hesse
- The Life of Pi by Yann Martel

Write a one-page review for each novel that expresses your opinion on the achievements of the novel.

Summer Reading List

1. All the Pretty Horses by Cormac McCarthy
2. Tess of the d'Urbervilles by Thomas Hardy
3. A Thousand Splendid Suns by Khaled Hosseini

Read all three selections. In a journal, record responses to the five items below for one work - either Tess of the d'Urbervilles or All the Pretty Horses. The journal entries must conform to Standard English grammar and spelling conventions.

1. Prior to reading the work, record biographical information about the author. Include significant achievements or honors attributed to the author and work.
2. Research and record information regarding the historical context of the work.
3. During the reading, provide brief plot summaries, character notes, and setting information.
4. Identify and describe themes and symbols.
5. Keep a quote log in which you write significant quotes on the left side of the page and your commentary on the quote on the right side of the page.

*Regardless of which work on which you choose to keep the log, you must conduct biographical research on Thomas Hardy to aid in your understanding of the work.

Summer reading assignment is due the first day of school in September 2018.
